Grand Prize, 2008 Banff Mountain Photography Competition, winner Marten Blumen is known for his capacity and devotion to produce quality adventure, outdoor and nature images in tough conditions. Combining a world class digital skill-set, an artists eye for light and an inquisitive mind, he regularly produces unique outcomes.

Publications including National Geographic, Outside (China), NZ Geographic, Action Asia, NZ Alpine Journal and companies including Mountain Equipment Co-Op have used his photographs. His stock photography is represented by Hedgehog House and he is currently designing photography workshops with World Expeditions and the NZ Alpine Club.

He has also produced digital effects work for feature films including 'Charlottes Web', 'Rogue' and 'Sky Captain and the World of Tomorrow'. His commercial experience includes work on a Superbowl commercial and for clients including Microsoft, Sony, Holden, and Siemens.
